FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOT ONLY THE SAGE OF OKLAHOMA, AUTHOR TOO

(EDMOND, OK)- Edmond's own "sage of Oklahoma" has been able to walk, talk and teach financial planning but now he has proof he can write about it too. Greg Womack, CFP and President of Womack Investment Advisers, announces the publication of "Wisdom and Wealth: A Christian's Guide to Managing Your Life and Finances".

Womack uses lessons of King Solomon, a Biblical and historically wise man, to introduce financial concepts and strategies. These strategies, brought down to terms everyone can understand and use, help shape the pages of "Wisdom and Wealth" to help you deal with financial situations past, present, and future.

Life's purpose and success are often associated with money, but Chapter 3: 'The Simple Life' explains why that isn't necessarily true. "This was my favorite chapter," explains Larry Deane, writer of Gather Little By Little- a Christian personal finance blog. "It deals with the topic of overspending and living beyond your means. He (Womack) offers numerous examples on how to reduce our spending along with tips for organizing our finances, creating a budget, and managing our time," says Deane.

Why is he considered the "sage"?

Just as King Solomon was considered the "sage of the near-east", Womack is considered by many of his customers as providing the wisdom they needed to avoid looming financial pitfalls. His counsel has lead many of his customers to invest wisely, save millions of dollars in taxes and to protect their family's financial assets.

As a lifelong resident of Edmond, Womack has been an active professional in the financial services industry for over 20 years. No stranger to the stage, Womack has been a frequent guest on 'The Bottom Line', a financial series produced by News Channel 4 (KFOR, Oklahoma City's NBC affiliate) and currently writes Womack's Weekly, a financial commentary for The Journal Record , to name a few.

Womack serves as President and Principal of Womack Investment Advisers, Inc. (WIA), an independent registered investment advisory firm. He is Series 7 registered, and he is a Registered Principal with Cambridge investment Research, Inc. (CIR). CIR is a full-service broker/Dealer, Member FINRA/SIPC. WIA and CIR are non-affiliated companies.
